would have the ability to, in fact, arrest and prosecute those people who are in violation of laws that coincide with both entities. I would ask for its advancement.

PRESIDENT: The question is the advancement of the bill. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays on the motion to advance the bill, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The bill is advanced. LB 223, please.

CLERK: Mr. President, if I might, right before that some items for the record.

PRESIDENT: Yes.

CLERK: Your Committee on Transportation reports LB 75 to General File. That is signed by Senator Lamb. Your Committee on Government reports 129 to General File, 231 to General File with amendments, and 81 indefinitely postponed. Signed by Senator Rupp. Retirement Committee reports 296 to General File with amendments. That is signed by Senator Haberman. I have amendments to be printed from Senator Hefner (LB 523); and I have notice of hearing from the Government Committee for February 11 and 12. That is signed by Senator Rupp, Mr. President. (See pages 469-72 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, LB 223 was a bill introduced by Senators Warner and Nelson. (Read title.) The bill was introduced on January 13, referred to the Government Committee, advanced to General File.

PRESIDENT: Senator Nelson, please. Do you want to talk about the bill?

SENATOR NELSON: Yes, I appreciate any comments from Senator Warner, if he would like to make them. But a little history on this bill. This is nearly the same bill as LB 32 that was introduced last year. In fact actually the bill is now what was amended by the committee. The fee schedule that we are calling for in this bill was a compromise and it was worked out last year. These are the fees that are in the bill right now. I might add that it was advanced by the committee, last year, on a 6-0 vote. What happened to the bill was, along with many other
